

Public/Non-profit Partnerships: Getting Work Done in the Age of Declining Budgets

Kristin Hathaway, City of Oakland
Jeff Stephens, Friends of Sausal Creek

Public/Non-profit Partnerships: Getting Work Done in the Age of Declining Budgets

- Sausal Creek Watershed and FOSC
- Managing City Lands in the Age of Declining Budgets
- Role of Non-Profits on Capital Improvement Projects
- Opportunities Ahead

Piedmont

SAN ANTONIO

FRUITVALE

Fruitvale Bridge Park

EAST PERALTA

JINGLETOWN

Subpar Miniature Golf

Managing City Lands in the Age of Declining Budgets

Managing City Lands in the Age of Declining Budgets

Projects: 2001 Dimond Canyon Restoration

Projects: 2015 Dimond Park Daylighting and Restoration

Projects: 2015 Dimond Park Daylighting and Restoration

Projects: 2015 Dimond Park Daylighting and Restoration

Projects: 2017 Dimond Canyon Restoration

Projects: Native Plant Nursery

Opportunities Ahead

- Looking at opportunity to advance conceptual design on Beaconsfield Canyon
- Continued coordination on events
- Support for smaller restoration activities throughout the watershed
- Working in the lower watershed to expand participation

Questions?

