

Volunteers Wanted

Castro Valley Creek, Castro Valley Coastal Cleanup Day 2015

Join our Creek Cleanup Along Castro Valley Creek-on the trail between the Castro Valley Library and Castro Valley Blvd.

SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 19TH 2015
9:00 AM TO 12:00PM

Space is limited; please sign up before Thursday, September 17th.

Please Join Us!

Meet at the Castro Valley Creek trail next to the Castro Valley library located at 3600 Norbridge Ave.

Creek Cleanup and "Creek Care" Walk

We'll be picking up and tallying trash as part of the official Coastal Cleanup Day while walking along the Castro Valley Creek trail. We'll also learn about actions we can take to protect the creek and wildlife habitat.

Wear work clothes and sturdy shoes (please no sandals), and gloves if you have them. We'll provide trash pick up gear and have gloves to loan. Please bring a refillable water bottle; we'll provide a snack.

Sign up in advance at www.handsonconservation.org

Volunteers: need to be age 10 and up, and if under age 12 must be accompanied by a parent or responsible adult.

Please print and fill out the liability waiver form on the website; those under 18 will need parent signature. Service Learning/Community Service hours awarded for students.

For details and questions contact:
Amy Evans at (925) 371-0154 x 112
amy.evans@acrccd.org

This event is part of The California Coastal Commission's statewide Coastal Cleanup Day. Visit their website for more information:
www.coastforyou.org

This event is held in conjunction with the Hands-on-Conservation program of the Alameda County Resource Conservation District (www.acrcd.org).

Program funding and support provided by the Alameda County Flood Control and Water Conservation District and Alameda County Clean Water Program.

Protecting Alameda County Creeks, Wetlands and the Bay

cleanwaterprogram.org